

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STAMFORD LAND APPOINTS
MRS LIM HWEE HUA AS INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR

SINGAPORE, 26 JUL 2012 – Stamford Land Corporation Ltd (“Stamford”), Australasia’s largest independent owner/operator of luxury hotels and developer of top-tier, landmark residential and commercial properties, is pleased to announce the appointment of Mrs Lim Hwee Hua as an independent director.

Mrs Lim is a well-known figure in Singapore and the business community, having distinguished herself in top leadership positions in government and leading institutions. Mrs Lim was first elected to Parliament in December 1996 and served till May 2011. She last served as Minister in the Prime Minister’s Office, Singapore, and concurrently as Second Minister for Finance and Transport from April 2009 to May 2011. Prior to joining the Cabinet, she enjoyed a varied career in financial services, including stints at Temasek Holdings as Managing Director (2000 – 2004) and Jardine Fleming (1992 - 2000).

Mrs Lim graduated with a Master of Arts (Honours) in Mathematics/Engineering from the University of Cambridge in 1981, on a Singapore government’s overseas merit scholarship. In 1989, she obtained a Master of Business Administration, major in Finance, from the Anderson School of Management, University of California at Los Angeles.

Mrs Lim is currently an independent non-executive director of SGX Mainboard-listed Jardine Cycle & Carriage Ltd, a Senior Advisor to leading global investment firm Kohlberg, Kravis and Roberts, and an Independent Non-Executive Member of the Ernst & Young Global Advisory Council. Further details on Mrs Lim are set out in the attached announcements to the SGX regarding her appointment.

Stamford’s Executive Chairman, Mr C K Ow said, “We are most delighted and honoured to welcome Hwee Hua to our Board. Having consistently distinguished herself throughout her careers in both the public service and private sectors, her excellent credentials and track record, coupled with her keen intellectual vigour will further strengthen our Board.”
